City of Elko Flood Update – April 12

The Humboldt River remains well under flood stage and no flood warnings are in effect.

Most of the remaining construction debris roll-off containers will be removed from flood-impacted areas on Friday, April 14. The City of Elko and Elko Sanitation will keep one (1) container placed in the area of 7th and Front Streets, which will be serviced as needed. Additionally, landfill fees will be waived for residential waste on Saturday, April 22 as part of the “Take Pride” Community Clean Up Day.

Residents of Elko, NV and those in neighboring communities can immediately begin receiving pertinent information via text message, email, and web by registering at www.nixle.com or by texting “elkops” to 888777. For immediate emergency assistance, call 911.
